

Consumers #1 complaint in Wisconsin against telemarketing speaks for itself, we do not want to be bothered in the privacy of our homes to be harassed into buying things we don't need. Getting up to answer the phone when we are doing other things just to find an annoying telemarketer on the other end is a nuisance.